The Sloe or Black Thorn.

Names.

Turc. ﺑﻮﻛﻢ

G. Αγρια Κοκκυμηλεα.

L. Pruna Sylvestria.

I. Vepro.

G. Schlehen.

F. Prunelle Sauvage.

S. Cireula.

D. Slee-pruymen.

Parts Used

The Fruit.

Preparations.

of the Green fru
is made the Ge man Accac

Place.

This Bush grows in any Place Hedges, Banks &c.

Time

It Blossoms early in the Spri and the Fruit ripe in Oct.r

Description.

This Small Tree, or Bush; has a Firm tough wood set with hard Sharp Thorns 1. coverd with a Smooth Grey Bark. The Young Leaves 2. are a light Green, when full grown 3. of a dark green, finely Serrated Round their Edges. The Empalement or Cup, is a light willow Green. The Flower 4. is composd of five, and sometimes Six very white Leaves, on a light green Ovary 5. is a White Style 6. whose top is a little Darker, incircled with Three times as many White Chives, as their are Leaves in each Blossom with Summits 7. Coverd with a Yellow Farina. The Fruit 8. when Ripe is a fine Blackish purple, of an Austere Taste, in which is enclosed a Stone 9. a Sloe openid 10. 5. 6. 7. 7. are parts magnifid.

Virtues.

Sloes are Restringent and Binding and Used for fastning loose Teeth and in Sore Mouths.

T. Sheldrake Delin C. Hemerich